>As of January 11, Otsego County Conservation Association (OCCA) has not filled their open professional planner position.

>Colin Jenkins has almost completed the community survey report.

> OCCA wants to know who are the people who know the Sherburne community best, also, who performs important work for Sherburne's benefit, and who represents and makes decisions for the Town of Sherburne and its residents. These stakeholders will be interviewed for their insights to be incorporated into the new comprehensive plan. Send suggestions of names for the list to Mike or Nancy.
